AROUND BAHRAIN

There is so much to see in Bahrain. Beautiful landscapes of hot sands and ocher fortresses, one of which is recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The largest necropolis in the world. Magical deserts where unexpected palm groves shield orange and lemon trees from the fierce winds. A tradition of pearl diving. A pulsing capital city with a fascinating national museum. And even Formula 1 Bahrain Grand Prix, held every April in the heart of the desert.

Manama is Bahrain's hip, modern capital. With restaurants, bars, nightlife, a traditional souk, shopping centers and amusement parks, there is something for everyone.

Royal Camel Farm. Children can watch young camels being nursed by their mothers.

Bahrain National Museum is truly remarkable, a must-see for history lovers and anyone interested in learning about the country's culture, riches and people.

Al Fateh Mosque is a majestic building. Al Khamis Mosque, one of the oldest in the world, is open to visitors.

Bahrain Fort helps visitors imagine Bahrain in the time of the mysterious Dilmun civilization, whose territory supposedly included the Garden of Eden.

The Tree of Life. The water source of this ancient acacia tree remains a mystery to this day. How did it find itself in the middle of the desert, approximately 2 kilometers (1.2 miles) from Djebel Dukhan? To some, it is just a tree. But when you realize that Bahrain is believed to be the site of the mythical Garden of Eden, it is easy to imagine that this could be the garden's last trace. Arrive early to see this legend up close.
